SNOWING IN MINNESOTA. It Does Not Keep the Voters From Going to the Polls.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., Nov. 8.—Everything is quiet and a very heavy vote is being polled in this city. Both parties, on account of a heavy registration, made a special effort to get out a large vote early and succeeded. The republicans are claiming that a large vote is in their favor, but it is too early to figure on results.

DULUTH, MINN.. Nov. 8.—The weather today is very bright and the indications are that a large republican vote will be polled. St. Paul, Minn. Nov. 8.—Weather quite cold: snowing a little, with about two and one-half inches on ground.

Senator Osborne Arrested. POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Senator E. B. Osborne offered his vote in this city today. It

Gen. Stevenson Votes. BLOOMINGTON, ILL., Nov. 8.—Gen. Stevenson cast his vote early. He will receive election returns by means of messenger and telephone He refused an offer of a special wire tendered

PITTSBURG, PA., Nov. 8.—Senator Quuy re turned from Philadelphia this morning on his way to Beaver to vote. While at Union station he said to a reporter: "I informed that President Harrison will be re-elected and that he will carry New York. The republican leaders are confident of this result. State Chairman der tells me that Pennsylvania will give majority of 70,000 for Harrison. He is confident of the legislature and does not anticipate a slump in any quarter."

PORTLAND, ME., Nov. 8 .- The weather is fine and warm, but the vote will evidently smaller throughout the state than in September. Neither side is making any effort to bring out the vote and few persons are around the polls. Bangor reports that the vote will be 25 per cent smaller than in September and about the same complexion. Lewiston and Auburn report reduced vote and a larger percentag of republican than democrats voting. The conclusion therefore is that the vote throughout the state will be smaller than in Septembe and the plurality will be as large or larger.

A Big Vote in Rhode Island PROVIDENCE. R. I., Nov. 8.—The weather warm and pleasant. A big vote is being polled in this city and apparently throughout the state, though it is being done generally very quietly.

Alabama's Colored Vote Republican. BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Nov. 8.—The election is passing off quietly here. A heavy negro vote is being polled and nearly all for the republican ticket, and not for the third party. The vote in Birmingham at noon stood labout five to one in favor of the democrats. No trouble is MONTGOMERY, ALA., Nov. 8.-Rain set in her Up to noon the voting has been light, with a majority gathered about the polls. Voting if slow and indications are that many voters will slowand indications are that many not be able to reach the polls today. Reports from the state are that the bad weather is general and that the result will be a falling off in the fusion vote. A few arrests—all negroes— have been made here for illegal voting. No trouble is reported from any point in the Expecting A Big Vote in Kansas. TOPEKA, KAN., Nov. 8.-The weather throughout Kansas is perfect today and th roads are in excellent condition and the registration the largest ever known in the state's It is expected nearly 345,000 votes will be polled, an increase of over 50,000 over the vote of 1890.

Unprecedented Vote in Georgia AUGUSTA, GA., Nov. 8.—There is a light cain. with a prospect of clear weather. The vote here will be the largest ever polled. # THE STATE ELECTIONS

What Voters Throughout the Country Are Interested in Besides the Presidency. Pennsylvania.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 8.—Pennsylvania voters will have five tickets in the field to choose from at today's election. The republican, democratic, people's, prohibitionist and socialistlabor parties each have full tickets in the field. In addition to the thirty-two presidential electors they will cast their ballots for a judge of The four state tickets are entirely distinct, exthe supreme court, two Congressmen-at-large, 204 assemblymen and twenty-five state senators.

Two constitutional amendments are up for or one-half the state senate. The candidates for supreme judge are: Republican, John Dean, Hollidaysburg: democrat, Christopher Heydrick, Franklin; prohibitionist, Amos Briggs, election will be compared, so far as possible, Cros drick, Franklin; prohibitionist, Amos Briggs, Philadeiphia; people's, B. North Dakota. BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 8 .- This is North Dakota's first experience in a presidential election and fusion between the democrats and people's party is opposed to the straight republican electoral and state tickets. Gov. Bourke, republican, is a candidate for re-election; he is opposed by C. D. Shortridge, people's party, with democratic indorsement. The rest of the fusion ticket alternates between the two par-ties. For Congress each of the three leading parties has its own candidate. The legislature lected today will choose a successor to United States Senator Casey. Returns will be com-

South Dakota. HURON, S. D., Nov. 8.—South Dakota today will choose four presidential electors, two Congressmen-at-large, governor and full state ticket and members of the legislature. Al-though the democratic electors appear on the official ballot the members of that party have been instructed to cast their votes for the Weaver electors. Chas. H. Sheldon is the re-publican choice for governor. Peter Couchan was the nominee of the democracy, but A. been indorsed by the democratic leaders. The vote will be compared with that of 1890.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 8 .- Kentucky votes eleven presidential electors. The democratic ticket, with one exception, will be elected, the republican, prohibition and people's parties not figuring significantly in the contest. In 1888 Kentucky gave Cleveland a plurality of 28,666, and this plurality will probably be increased by about 3,000 today. California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8 .- This state today

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Nov. 8.—Illinois today votes on governor and a full state ticket, two Congressmen-at-large and twenty Congressmen by districts, a legislature and twenty-four presidential electors. The republican candidate for governor is Gov. Jos. W. Fifer, the present incumbent, and the democratic candidate is John P. Altgeld, the prohibition and people's party not figuring significantly in the contest. The members of the state senate elected today will participate in the election of a United States enator two years hence to succeed Senator Cullom in 1895. Comparisons of the vote should be made with 1888, when the republicans carried the state by 12,000 plurality on governor and 22,000 piurality on President. About 15,000 more votes will be cast this year than in 1888.

The day fourteen presidential electors, a full state republican candidate for governor is Absam W. Smith; thefusion candidate, supported by the democrats and populists, is Lorenzo D. Lewelling. The new legislature will elect a successor to Senator Bishop W. Perkins, appointed by the governor to serve in the place of the late Senator Plumb until the legislature should fill the vacancy. Comparison should be made on the electoral ticket with 1888, when Harrison carried the state by 8,000 plurality.

Incket, twelve Congressmen, members of the state legislature and county officials are being voted for.

Allan B. Morse, ex-justice of the supreme court of Michigan, is the democratic nomineer of governor, John T. Kich is the republican candidate. W. John W. Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 8.—The weather all over Ohio is bright and cold. Reports indicate a heavy vote. Cincinnati will poll about 90 per cent of its registered vote or close on to 65,000. Hamilton county, of which this city is a part, will throw over 80,000 ballots. The indications are that Harrison will carry the county. The head of the democratic vate tisket, and of the senate have house members of the state legislature and as well as very generally for local county tickets. The senate as elected will hold office for four years and will publican candidate is J. Sterling Morton, and the people's party candidate is Charles II. Van Wyck. The democratic base term expires in 1882. About 40,000 more votes than in 1888, it is expected, will be east. The head of the democratic vate tisket is four presidential electors. Comparisons should be are that Harrison will carry the county by from 3.500 to 4.000, although the republicans claim that it may reach 5.000.

There is a claim that Storer, republican, in the party and prohibition tickets not figuring party and prohibition tickets not figuring.
